

Energetic Introduction to the Angelic Mastery™ Healing Modality

William M. Austin, III

Greetings! My name is Bill Austin and I would like to thank you for ordering a copy of my book! I am sure that you will enjoy it!

How to Work with the Images

As you look at each image, focus on how you feel as you look at it. The images you most enjoy will probably be ones where you are already energetically strong in or the ones that are most relevant to what is going on in your life. Take note of the ones that make you feel uncomfortable because that usually means that you are energetically weak in those areas and that is why you feel discomfort as you look at them. These are the images you want to work with daily for a while. The important thing is to play with the images and have fun!

It takes around three to four weeks for people to fully absorb the energies that are encoded in each image. So keep this book where you can access it throughout the day and look at the images often for a month or so. Every time you look at an image, you will receive healing from it. For some of these books, I have created video and/or audio recordings to help you absorb and integrate the coding of the images.

Receive Free Health, Wealth & Success Articles Each Week

When you sign up for my newsletter, each week you will receive one of the Mastery Training Module articles I created about healing, manifesting, the Law of Attraction, empowered living and spiritual growth. Most of these modules contain a healing image or a link to a free energy healing session to enhance the quality of your life.

In addition, you will receive an email message from me every two to three days that contains a short, sweet and simple two to three paragraph long tip on healing, manifestation and spiritual growth. A Little Bit About Me...

My name is Bill Austin and I am a spiritual healer, teacher, artist, writer and visionary living in St Petersburg, FL in the United States. For the first thirty years of my life I led a fairly conventional life. I grew up in a very stable and conservative family in central Virginia. My father was a school teacher and my mother was a nurse who quit working when I was born. I was the oldest child of three children and I have a younger brother and sister. I have always been extremely introverted and inner motivated and driven.

I am very bright and I always did well in school. I graduated from William and Mary in 1983 with a degree in Economics and got a job with the federal government in Washington DC as an economist with the Bureau of Labor Statistics. After a few years of working for Uncle Sam, I decided to enter law school in August of 1987 and I graduated from the University of Virginia's School of Law in May of 1990.

During the month I began studying law at UVA, a very important event occurred on the planet called Harmonic Convergence. During Harmonic Convergence humanity was basically surveyed on the spiritual planes and asked “Do you want to ascend with the planet or do you want to continue the lessons here on a different time space continuum elsewhere?” Humanity chose to ascend with the planet much to the surprise of almost everyone and this decision irrevocably changed the course of my life.

The first wave of mass awakening occurred in 1987 and many starseeds like myself had their lives totally rearranged in response to the collective decision made by humanity. When a world chooses to ascend, a lot of cosmic dispensations of grace occur for people who are willing to help out. The first wave of awakening largely woke up the starseeds like myself who are highly evolved souls from other time space continuums that have incarnated on Earth to assist humanity and the planet to ascend. Since 1987 millions of Indigo and Crystalline Christ children have chosen to incarnate here as well and they will change the world in ways that most of us cannot envision at this time.

I had no clue what the Harmonic Convergence thing was about in 1987 and if someone had told me about it, I probably would not have believed them at that time. It would have sounded crazy and weird to me. But what happened to me is that the law school thing no longer served my highest good. I had several gentle wakeup calls that maybe I should be doing something else with my life, but I totally blew them off and I paid a large energetic price for doing so. I am very tenacious and stubborn and I stuck it out and graduated. I was one of a handful of students at UVA to graduate without a job and I developed insomnia my second year because I was so stressed.

Up until that point I had lived a magical life. Everything I wanted I got and it came easily to me and all that was taken away. I moved to Philadelphia and developed back problems and then the legal job market there collapsed. I tried everything under the sun to heal the insomnia thing and nothing worked, And during the process of living with insomnia for over ten years, I lost a lot of my faith in doctors and the medical establishment because I was in a really bad place and nothing they did helped me. One of the main reasons, I became a spiritual healer is that I feel that spiritual healing addresses and heals the root cause of imbalances rather than trying to patch up and deal with the effects of them.

In the midst of all this chaos on so many levels of my life, I experienced a spiritual awakening on a Greyhound bus going from Washington DC to Philadelphia in 1991. It felt like a million watts of love going into a ten watt vessel. It only lasted twenty minutes or so but to me it felt like a lifetime. I felt like I was being rewired and I emerged from this experience a very different person. A lot of things that used to be important to me like money and careers and status and education no longer meant anything at all to me. I had encountered the vast potential of who I was and all that stuff just felt irrelevant.

A few days after the bliss wore off, I began to worry that I was going mad with the sleep deprivation and this was the first sign. I did not tell anyone about this experience for many years. Later on I studied the writings of the great mystics and realized that what I had experienced was a mystical experience that others had gone through. I deeply resonated with the mystic teachings around Practicing the Presence and the Dark Night of the Soul.

Insomnia led me to the spiritual path. I read somewhere that meditation helped some people handle the effects of prolonged sleep deprivation so I checked out a huge stack of meditation books from the library and found the simplest way possible. And much to my deep shock, daily meditation helped me to coexist with sleep deprivation. Daily meditation led me to beginning to follow a spiritual path.

Over a two year period I read hundreds of self help and psychology books and stumbled into channeled books and the New Age. I loved the series of channeled books by Sanaya Roman. I liked her books so much that in 1991, I learned how to channel and I actually had great success with it. For a month or two I seriously considered the possibility of becoming a professional channel but I chose not to. Looking back on it now I realize that the only being I have ever wanted to channel or bring in really is the highest level aspect of my monad – which is the soul of my soul.

I was on the spiritual path for about ten years when I first felt drawn to begin working with other people. I was irritated about the whole thing because by then I had a good job that I enjoyed and was making lots of money and had benefits. But the call to heal got so strong that I began to cave in. I got attuned for Usui Reiki by one of my spiritual teachers in late 1999 and I took my first energy healing class in early 2000. I quit my secure state job to work as a healer full time in June 2003. I downloaded the Practical Mastery™ healing modality in 2005 and the Mastery Sequences in 2006. In 2006, I began encoding healing and enlightenment energies into paintings. In 2007, I began working with Anita Briggs on Inner Mastery Tools. In 2008, I downloaded hundreds of Heart Oriented Ascension activations and began working on Feng Shui manuals with Monica Castaneda. In 2009, I began working with Maria Bowling on a children's book.

I am very excited to launch this series of spiritual healing books. As I create these books, I feel myself upgrade so I know that they will be very powerful. My hope and intent is that these books will provide a space of healing and support for all who are drawn to them.

About My Line of Healing Image Books

Over the last eighteen years I have been consciously walking a spiritual path, I have encountered lots of people who are very intent and focused on growing. I feel that often their lives are out of balance since they focus so much on growth for the sake of growth. Many of them feel so heavy to me that I find it hard to be around them. It is my intent, vision and hope that this line of healing image books will help people to heal, grow, evolve and expand in a fun, joyful and playful manner with lots of ease and grace.

My passion in life is really about mastery – helping people to apply spiritual principles and universal laws to create a life that works. An important part of mastery for me is about finding ways to help other people with the minimal investment of my personal time and energy. I highly value my time and I am always seeking ways to utilize it more effectively. I am also very interested in using technology to leverage getting my work out to the people who resonate with it. My interest in technology is why I created a web page on YouTube to get my work out in video format (www.YouTube.com/billaustinart).

Printing technology has reached the point that it is fairly easy to self publish so I am reformatting my work for this medium. These books target areas that come up over and over again whenever I work with clients for the first time. Each of the images in this book is a healing session. Many of the images are based on healing sessions I created for my major modalities that I am placing into these books. I often combine multiple sessions into one image to boost their power and effectiveness. I also am providing internet access to some of my most powerful healing video and recordings to people who order these books.

As I write this, I am planning to create a series of seven healing image books:

- Bill Austin's Self Help, Clearing and Healing Program
- Energetic Introduction to the Practical Mastery™ Healing Modality
- Energetic Introduction to the Angelic Mastery™ Healing Modality
- Energetic Introduction to Heart Oriented Ascension
- Empowerment Healing Module for Stress, Fear, Downer Emotions, Scarcity Consciousness, Self Sabotage and Addictions
- Empowerment Healing Module for Self Love, Self Esteem, Forgiveness and Relationships
- Angelic Love Washes and Healing Modules
- Bill's Blasting and Blessing Book

Many of these images contain healing energies and frequencies from some of the healing modalities and tools I have created over the last five years (for more information go to www.BillAustinArt.com). My major tools and modalities at this time are:

- Practical Mastery™ Spiritual Healing and Enlightenment modality
- Angelic Mastery™ Spiritual Healing and Enlightenment modality
- Universal Clearing Profile (most effective tool for clearing I have ever used)
- Crystalline Rainbow Reiki (heart paradigm version of Reiki)
- Blasting Line of Sessions

About The Energetic Introduction to the Angelic Mastery™ Healing Modality

I began working with the angels of love and healing long, long before I began working as a healer. I was on the spiritual path for over ten years before I began studying and working with spiritual healers at all. During this time I worked with a lot of spiritual teachers and channels and studied with a lot of highly evolved teachers and masters before I focused in on the spiritual healing field.

A lot of the inner work I did was very intense and heavy. I suspect that a lot of my firm belief now that healing and growth should be fun, easy, joyful, quick and graceful in some ways is a reaction to my early experiences of working with spiritual teachers. I also used to believe that if something worked you should feel it strongly in the body – a belief that I have blessed with love and released.

One day I had received a really powerful initiation that left me high as a kite as I received it and feeling like I had been run over by a truck the next day (grounding has always been a challenge). I was meditating for a way to get the growth and evolution from that experience with ease and grace when I felt this very gentle, peaceful and loving presence come into my awareness. I asked who they were and I got that they were a group of angels of love and healing who wanted to assist me.

They hugely helped me to integrate that experience and I never forgot this. Over the years, I worked more and more with them and when I began studying healing, often I would take what I learned and ask if the angels had a way to make it gentler with ease and grace and they always helped me. I realized later that most of the modalities I used originated in the Mental Paradigm of Reality and that the angels were basically translating them into the Heart Paradigm of Reality.

The first line of Angelic Mastery™ sessions I created were for healing beliefs; the next ones were for healing emotions; then I downloaded sessions for enlightenment and healing past incidents. When Anita Briggs asked me to create angelic healing sessions for therapists, I downloaded a lot of personality healing sessions and my favorite – the magical angelic love and healing washes.

I created this book to help you to experience firsthand some of the power and magic of working with the angels of love and healing. When I asked the angels for their description of the work we do together, this is what I got:

“We, the Angelic Councils of Love, have been working with the one known as Bill Austin for many years now. We do not view the human body like your medical professionals or yourself does. So often when you look at your body, you focus on what you most dislike in your physical form and thus you magnetize back to you more of what you dislike. When we, the Angelic Healers of Love, look at you - what we see in each of you is a beautiful tapestry of light and love. Each of you is a walking miracle. We challenge you the next time that you look in the mirror to cherish yourself rather than put yourself down.

The angelic healing techniques that comprise Angelic Mastery™ are very soft, gentle and nurturing to all of your energetic bodies. We honor your energetic bodies and treat them with great love and respect. Our favorite way of healing is to bathe the energetic bodies, fields and particles in Love for love is truly the great healer. We also utilize a lot of colors, tones and rays of creation energy to assist you in releasing and healing all that is not aligned with your highest good or does not support your spiritual evolution. Above all things, we wish that each of you would love yourself as much as you possibly can. For self love is the key that unlocks the heart; and the heart energy is so very important now on the planet.”

Videos on the Download Page

To introduce readers of this book to the Angelic Mastery™ healing modality, I have given people who purchase this book Internet access to four of the series of videos I created for this modality. Here is a little more information about each of these videos. The download page information is on page 4 of this book.

Angelic Mastery™ of Beliefs Video 1:

Angelic Mastery™ of Beliefs sessions provide angelic support to clear, heal and transmute negative thinking. I placed some of the most important ones on this video.

Recommended Use

You may want to keep this book with you throughout the day. I strongly encourage you to look at it several times a day at least for the first few weeks. A great practice would be to look at the images in the book first thing when you wake up, during your lunch hour and the last thing before you go to bed.

How the Vibrationally Encoded Healing Images and Master Healing Images Work

Each of the vibrationally encoded images in this book are digitally rendered paintings that have many layered energies, frequencies, and 'coding' embedded into them. Basically each of the images is encoded or programmed with certain clearing, healing and enlightenment energies that are indicated in the title of the image. They provide healing in several ways. One way is that a lot of energy is being transmitted through colors. The colors of each image are carefully selected to help promote, enhance and magnify the specific healing required in an image.

The second level of healing of the images comes from their impact on the programming in your brains, minds, neurons and brain chemistry. As you look at the images—the shapes and the color vibrations—you are stimulating and rewiring your brains and minds to clear out a lot of old, outdated subconscious programming, and wiring to bring in higher-level concepts that will support accelerated healing, growth and evolution.

The third level of healing is through magnetic resonance. Magnetism is instantaneous and unbounded in potential. The images re-magnetize your brain to attract as much healing and evolution as you can that is aligned with your highest good and spiritual evolution in the NOW. The images respond to the individual and will begin to work in you from your current point of consciousness. As soon as you look at an image, the clearing, restructuring, or awakening begins. The more frequently and the longer that you look at an image, the more deeply it works in you.

While you do not have to think about the subject matter of the image to benefit from them, you can also work more consciously with them and request specific clearings within their scope. Once the healing frequencies have been integrated, then looking briefly or even a glance at the images can reinforce and deepen them.

You can frame the images, print them in black and white (they still will hold the energy of the color originals), laminate them, reduce them, cut them up or do whatever and the images will still energetically hold the same vibration as the original image. The reason is that we live within a holographic universe and each part of the image is a hologram that contains the vibration of the whole.

Important Note: Master Healing Images are the most powerful ones because they combine the energies of many images into one. If you have limited time to work with the images, focus on the images with Master Healing Image in the title.
